

Angel of Ascension .. Out of Darkness into Light © Astrea Aurora

Lunar eclipse .. full moon linkup .. Mon 27 August 2007 .. 8pm

Beloveds, it is the Lord Kuthumi .. as we link our energies together on this evening of total lunar eclipse .. grounded by Mother Gaia as you anchor your pathway of light deep within the earth .. and assisted by the many angelics from various dimensions to open your higher chakras to the Source realms .. with Divine Mother assisting now to allow the heart to fully open on all levels .. expanding with the breath to allow your light body to fill completely with light .. connected to both the heavenly realms of inspiration and the earthly realms of anchoring and bringing into reality those heavenly gifts you each hold.

And we introduce now many emissaries from the realms of Arcturus and Andromeda .. and your energy bodies receive fine tuning, releasing the memories of parallel lifetimes and patterns of sabotage, of inability, of lack of faith, lack of belief and trust .. which have anchored within the bodies of light that are returning and which have anchored into your being. And you may work consciously with the emissaries by surrendering up for release the challenges both recent and of long standing within which you are currently 'stuck', opening your heart, your mind, and your entire being and surrendering for release all that challenges and confuses, saddens and limits you. And these often manifest within the physical body as blockages and illnesses .. and these may be offered for release also. If you will work consciously with this fine tuning, much acceleration is gained .. and much may be achieved. It is in the creation of a vacuum, releasing all that is duality and distortion .. that the team of lightworkers who support you and whose role is one of assistance and guidance and enablement .. may offer you great downloads of light codes of restoration, of repatterning, of inspiration, of acceleration and of empowerment.

Each of the dimensions of your being receives attention, your mental body, emotional body, spiritual body, star body, soul body, etheric body, divine masculine and feminine body .. all the dimensions and the gateways of your being receive lifting of the distortions held .. and repatterning to divine perfection .. a gift given to you all in each pod linking of your energies .. that you receive relief from any physical challenges and burdens from this path of greatness along which you walk.

There is great acceleration within the energies sent to the earth plane .. and many are the changes that are occurring, both individually and on a planetary level. You each stand as great channels of light, like beacons of light you hold these energies and embody them and share them with all, once they have transfigured you.

We wish to share with you the nature of the path you walk, which is one of transfiguration and transformation. Every cell and every atom of your being is changing and transforming into crystal light.

The portals within your body receive linking and connection with the galactic portals .. and also with the physical portals of mother earth. The lei lines and meridians of your body are connecting with the pathways of light in the galaxies .. and with the lei lines of mother earth. You are becoming multidimensional .. transforming the nature of your being, opening pathways within your physical being which have their parallels both in the galaxies and within the physical earth. You walk as living transmitters of divine Source energy .. bringing divine light, inspiration, and great impulses of unconditional love .. for all to share. And so, there are physical challenges within this transformation .. as each cell transforms and crystallises into light .. and as your frequencies change and lift, becoming more and more aligned with the higher galactic and cosmic frequencies.

And there are great impulses of these galactic charges of energy .. followed by what seem to be lulls of energy .. of emptiness and of wondering and doubting .. when all appears to grind to a halt, and there feels to be no progress, no direction, no divine inspiration, no charge of energy, no thrills and spills of excitement and passion and the new paradigms of energy which stir you and bring change. And the old patterns of doubt and loss of faith creep in at these times .. and all that you have been through, the initiations you have passed through, the transformation you have gained, the personal challenges you have walked beyond .. seem of little value or importance in these times .. for the energy appears to have stopped and in these quiet times you are often unable to recall the heightened raising of the senses, of the closeness to might and divinity just recently experienced, of the exhilaration of walking beyond personal challenges .. all appears to have stopped, this progress and excitement and challenge and success.

And you look at others who are racing ahead, and compare yourself and feel lacking in progress, lacking in connection, lacking in divinity. Each has his own path to greatness .. and some have a more accelerated path .. some have a fire within the belly which sees them forging ahead, working with huge levels of determination and discipline .. and that there is a timing of the divine for each which varies .. and some with the fire in the belly are forced by this inner fire to tumble through initiations and are buffeted about by the energies they encounter .. and others choose a more graceful, and sometimes less exciting, less profound path of evolution .. with not the bells and whistles of those with the inner fire. But say to you clearly .. that each of you holds the same capacity of greatness. And that what you see in another indeed and in fact is the mirror of your own greatness .. only the timing differs. Each of you holds the same degree of greatness and divinity .. only the path differs, and the timing. Each of you holds greatness within.

We say to you that you are holding the gains you have made .. holding these fast, channeling these into the earth .. anchoring these personal successes and overcoming of challenge .. anchoring this transformation of your crystal bodies of light .. into the portals and meridians, the lei lines of mother earth .. acting as transmitters of divine light and frequency and of the overcoming of previous challenges and obstacles .. you pass all that you have gained in personal acceleration and growth and evolution into the earth core where it is shared with all humanity.

And it is in these lull times, when all energy appears to have stopped .. that in fact you are offering all that you have gained to humanity and to mother earth .. and in these lull times, those others of humanity are given time to absorb and to accept and to integrate what you have gone before to bring them. And it is a service and a gift to humanity you bring them, in allowing them extra time to catch up and to absorb and to come to terms with the new paradigms you bring, for you are the new creators of the new world.

It is from your own heart's dreams that you create this world on behalf of all. It is what makes your heart sing .. which is the preprogrammed impulse which sets you about your path of transformation. Your heart holds divine wisdom and knowledge .. and when you are true to your heart's wisdom and its divine desires .. you bring about an entirely new paradigm of life upon this earth. You stand as creators of the new reality and it is from your hearts that you bring these new concepts of right action, right thought, right living .. to the new world. Individually you hold desire for change in all the levels of living and of physicality .. desire for change in equality, in freedom of choice, in free will, of justice and equality, of fairness and peace, of nutrition of the physical body, of purity of water and food without contamination by chemical alteration, of healing and methods of treatment for illness, of natural remedies .. desire for ways of living and being .. of living and loving and sharing in community and care for each other .. of assisting and supporting each other and living in harmony and peace .. in working together, sharing your beautiful gifts and personal attributes .. in synergy of your energies and your gifts and individual qualities of greatness.

You are held in high regard and honour by the family of light .. and there is such support for you and assistance. It is seen the personal challenges you endure in the face of enormous changes occurring all around and within you. It is our desire that you be made aware of the divine nature you each hold and of the path you walk and of the new world you bring with you to humanity.

If you will open your hearts now and your minds .. as many angelic beings from Arcturus bring tools of healing and of remembrance .. to break free of the patterns of limitation you hold as beings of physicality .. so that you may have memory now of your divinity and of the greatness of the path you walk individually and together, each of you bringing your own jewel of greatness to create the new world for humanity.

You stand at the forefront of great change and this change is first embodied within your own personal and individual beings. And as you each transform .. humanity is enabled to likewise receive. As you each individually dream and create your own new world and way of being and of living .. you draw all of humanity with you. For you are each of you grand creator beings. Known in your heart is the deepest dream and wish for the life you may have on earth.

Unhinge yourself from humanity in its restrictions and smallness and narrowed vision .. and dare to dream your biggest dreams. Dare to accept your divinity. Dare to dream big and to make changes in your life. For you are dreaming the dream for humanity. Dare to transform your own life, to take the steps away from all that limits you and saddens you and restricts you from expanding your consciousness on every level. Know of your role. Accept your greatness. Allow your deeply felt dreams and desires to emerge. Hold the dream. Accept the lulls without falling into despair and doubt and losing the momentum you have gained.

Hold the dream, never lose sight of your great ability to bring your dreams to reality. For you are to remember that there is a grand team and network of light who hold your dreams for you as you release them from deep within your deepest heart .. and that as you release these which are your most deeply held and yearned for realities .. releasing these from the galactic highways which travel between the cosmic realms via your own meridians and portals in your physical body .. they are taken and amplified and added to the dreams of others, great ones such as you .. and they create the new paradigms of the new world.

You hold the ingredients of the new world within you, within those gateways and portals and vortexes of your light bodies. Never lose sight of this fact, that you hold the dreams of the new world for humanity. And that as each of you brings your own dream of your own reality into being .. individually you are creating power spots of energy in which the dream is being lived consciously. You allow the dream deeply held to release. You act on this dream once it is released. You hold the dream. The universal laws of reflection accept your dream and bring it to you. You build the dream. You live the dream. In joy, in fulfillment, in excitement .. you live the dream. You share the dream. You share the story of the dream. You share the means of bringing the dream into reality. And you assist others to uncover their dreams .. and to link those ones with their own teams of light .. and you become ribbons of light across the universe .. each of you bringing a ribbon of light, imbued with dreams of the highest of love and imagination for the new reality, new world .. and the ribbons of light link and join and form the fabric of the new world, individual rainbow ribbons of light, of love, of heart dreaming. Hold the vision beloveds, hold the dream .. and create your dream.

Bring your dreams out now beloveds, create your own perfect world .. allow the heart to guide you as you write all of your dreams for your own perfect world .. write from your heart of the way you wish to live, and where and how and with whom .. and of the qualities of that life, and what it is you do that fulfills you and excites you and inspires you and fills you with joy. Allow monetary concerns to fall away, for money is but one of the forms of the energy of the universe .. one such as love which is unlimited. The energy forms of the universe are unlimited and are holographically mirrored and sent around the universe as never ending streams of divine light and power .. and where abundance and plenty is the mirror of reality .. then more of abundance and plenty is created .. it is unlimited beloveds. Not necessary to create the how .. for the how is taken care of within the universal realms. It is for you to each individually break through your own concepts of limitation and of lack .. to allow the heart's dreams to release, unrestricted, unhampered by the how. Your role is to dream the dream .. to live the dream .. to accept the dream. The universal laws will bring the dream to you .. when you have created the vacuum within, which holds no blockage or obstacle or obstruction.

Opening your hearts now beloveds and creating in your mind the dream, and writing of this in detail .. the dream you dream for your own life .. on this occasion not the dream you hold for humanity, for it is known that always you hold the dream for humanity. You are to bring your own dreams to reality initially, for you form a cohesive network of dreamers, each bringing a new way of living and of being to the earthplane .. and when each of you has put in place your own dream, the dreamers link and share dreams .. but first it is necessary to release your own dream and to accept the assistance that is given you to bring your dream into reality.

You may write of your dream .. and allow now the beings of light from Arcturus to take from your field of energy those doubts and blockages and obstructions .. that a vacuum is created. Breathing deeply and offering now, surrendering each doubt and fear, the lack of faith, the feelings of hopelessness and sadness and isolation and stuckness and lack of direction.

Accept this clearing of your energy field, allowing great clarity, great joy, great hope and faith to arise and to fill you with clarity and with inspiration and joy. And know that in this moment you are an empty vessel and that the angels quickly now fill you with light codes which form a new reality and way of being .. transforming, repatterning you to a new and divine reality. And know that you are divine in this moment. Accept this. Know this completely. And continue to allow your deepest heart's dreams to surface and to unravel. To embellish these with flourishes of unlimitedness .. to create the biggest of dreams. Dream deep. Dream big. For you are unlimited in this moment. And more and more you will come to embody this unlimitedness, and to continue to draw to you your deepest dreams. Dare turn up the volume that you may hear the universal song of greatness that you sing for humanity and the new world.

And now you may embellish your dreams of the new way for humanity, with fairness and equality and plenty for all. With unlimited access to all the energy needs of all. With fairness and justice for all. With unlimited food of the highest concentration of goodness and health, with pure water .. and housing and support and sharing and co-operation in community .. with peace and harmony and abundance for all.

Open your hearts and dream the new dream for all. And know that as you link your energies your dreams are held and grounded .. and along the galactic highways, and the lei lines and songlines of the earth your dreams are anchored and brought into reality.

Enjoy the lulls .. for they are always followed by peak experiences, and times of great movement and change, when much is asked of you. Enjoy these lulls as times of reflection and of allowing the heart's dreams to emerge .. for with the eclipses and the planetary influx of light they bring, great change occurs and there is much to do, much is changing and much is asked of you. Accept the planetary movements and flow with them. Accept the energies they bring, for they bring great change and transformation .. followed by lulls of integration. Allow your dreams to clarify, so that you are clear about what you are really wishing to bring into reality. Enjoy the lulls, for they are always followed by the lion's roar of activity.

Know you are ever loved, ever guided, always supported and held, inspired and assisted. I am the Lord Kuthumi.
