

Angel of Ascension ... Out of Darkness into Light 2007 Astrea Aurora

Attitudes of Ascension

Dear workers of light, you are honoured for the individual healing you bring to the earth plane, walking through initiations of healing those karmic and genetic patterns which you have incurred in your ancient lifetimes, those you have chosen to bring to resolution in this lifetime and to completely release from your being that all of man may benefit. For you hold greatness within you, each of you, and each has chosen his apportionment of duality which he will successfully clear from his being. You are asked to acknowledge for yourselves this role you play for humanity ... and to know that the healing you each embody as you successfully clear yourselves of the ancient dualities ... is anchored to the earth, to Gaia, and to all humanity. It is when you open your energies to the heavens and anchor yourselves deep within the core of Gaia's heart that the healing you embody travels via encodements of light to her portals along the grids and the lei lines and the dreaming lines, and that as each of you succeeds in clearing yourself of disabling and disempowering patterns, all of mankind alike receives the benefit of the healing you have given to Gaia's heart.

You are reminded that in just this, clearing yourselves of disabling patterns, in achieving harmony in your life, you are fully in your service work to humanity. As you brighten your light, all of mankind receives upliftment.

And to those of you who ponder 'what is my purpose', you are told that in bringing yourselves out of darkness and into light, out of disharmony into peace, out of dissatisfaction into fulfillment in your personal lives, out of bondage to the needs and desires of self and of others and into freedom from attachment, the freedom that comes from self-knowledge, self trust, self honour, self love, you do this not only as part of your ascension process ... but as a side benefit within the divine perfection of the divine plan you share this healing, this freedom, this harmony, this fulfillment, this self honour, self love with all of humanity. And so it is within your daily lives that as workers of the light you bring great healing and service for all.

Your mission council stands before each of you dear ones, and honours your path of completion and of service. You are asked now to open your energies, to surrender yourselves to your divine paths, to acknowledge that you are at this moment in your path of service and that there are many initiations in each day of your daily life ... and that you need not wait for your divine role to open to you, for you stand within this already. Ah, you need not wait for this great role to arrive, for the grand opportunity to open to you, for you stand within your role and path of service at this very moment and all haste can be given to this moment of Now. No need to wait for clarity, for the moment when you are 'free' of limitation, free of disharmony, free of pain before you may take your part in this bringing of the new world to mankind. It is in the successful clearing of each of the individual dualities and distortions with which mankind is beset and which you each have apportioned to yourselves as those which you will take, will walk through and successfully clear from your being ... that you bring to your genetic line and to all of humanity this great dissolution of all the distortions which have emanated across all the civilisations of man.

And as you surrender to this truth and open your energies fully, breathe deeply as you open each of your chakras, breathing up through the crown through all the suns and moons to the Source and receive a great downpouring of celestial light which as it washes through each of the chakras and each of the diamond plates of your light body releases the imperfections, the distortions, the karmic records and memories and experiences held in every dimension of your being.

As you open yourself to receive a karmic cleansing of the behaviours and limitations and fears and doubts you hold across all the ages and dimensions of your being, you are asked to offer up and to surrender those patterns and behaviours, to name these and to offer these for release. The doubts of self. The lack of trust in the divine. The fears of being unsupported and assisted. The feelings of aloneness, and of separation from others. The hatred of self. Hatred and judgement of others. The humiliations when you compare yourself with others. The resentments you hold. The fears for the future. The fears that result in an inability to move forward. The fears around security and money. Offering up the dualities you hold ... those of lack of love, lack of success, lack of abundance, lack of health, lack of harmony, lack of self belief, lack of direction, lack of knowledge of self.

Your greatness is seen by your Family of Light. Your paths are known to be challenging for you bring in this moment the greatest of healing and of service to man in the individual clearing that you each achieve. There is such a great desire that you be assisted and given every opportunity to fully release yourselves from the karmic challenges you endure in your daily physical life.

As you open yourselves to receive great transmissions of divine light, you are asked to open your lower chakras and to connect your energies deep within the crystal heart of Gaia. The healing you receive, the transformation of the dualities which now transfigures your light body, takes from you each of the distortions held in your diamond plates and its individual crystals and chakras, flows through your being and is lodged deep within the portals of the earth.

Continue to offer for release each of the limitations with which you are faced, each challenge and struggle and confrontation and fear ... and as you offer each of these for release, it is washed from your being and your light body fills with light, washing away the old and restoring you to your divine perfection. And the angels sing their soaring melodies of repatterning, their pitch sublime, soaring and melodic symphonies of angelic resonance to repattern and restore, sealing all that you have gained this day through all the dimensions of your being, reverberations which modify, restore, align and bring you to completion.

And as the old is taken away, and the new is embodied by each of you, you shine your light so brightly, brilliant in its magnificence. Shining lights, each of you, shining for humanity. The love current is activated and begins its strong pulse in a figure of eight in and around your being, crossing at your hara and encircling above your head and below your feet into the earth. And as you sink into this surging flow of love, the angelics broadcast your magnificence with their tones and soaring notes, creating holographic modules through their technologies of sound, and the holographs of wholeness encircle the globe of earth, able to be accessed by so many.

And as you sit bathed in this radiant light, emitting wholeness and love, you are asked to focus your energies now on harmony. To focus the intent of harmony in its many manifestations. Harmony in relationships, your own relationships and those of all of mankind. Harmony in physical health ... and emotional and mental health. Harmony of the environment, with honour for the abundance we enjoy, and respect for the resources of the earth. Harmony with neighbours, with family, with husbands, wives, daughters and sons. Harmony in the work we each perform, that which we do with the greatest of skill and joy. Harmony with other nations. Harmony with other races. Harmony within religions. Harmony within politics, with justice and right action and fairness for all. Harmony within rule, with justice and selflessness and altruism. Harmony within the legal system, the insurance system, the medical system, the bureaucracies. Harmony within all the kingdoms of man ... those of the rocks, the waters, the mountains, the soil, the animals, the clean air ... focusing the intent of harmonizing the elements and healing these, bringing healing to the earth and to all its inhabitants.

And as you each focus your intent on harmony, a holographic image is taken of each of your visions of harmony and of love ... and they encircle the globe of the earth. Your holographs of harmony hold the earth as sweet wings of desire, softly holding all of her inhabitants with your ideals and your knowledge of perfection in all its guises. You hold the world in this moment with your heartfelt love and your knowledge of the perfection that is possible.

Within your hearts you each hold contract to work in this way, to release from your divine hearts your ideals of perfection and to align your energies together to raise new paradigms of consciousness and love, intent and focus for humanity. You are to know that you each hold greatness and ability to effect great change by the linking of your energies and your intents.

Into the portals of light you create in your sacred places and into the portals of the earth those holograms and ideals of harmony are poured and received ... and there is a great balance achieved, harmonizing and balancing all of the earth. You are beings of greatness and there is such love and honour of each of you, shining lights all, without exception.
