

Sister of the Rose

Mary Magdalene speaks

#4 6 January, 2007

Beloveds, it is Lady Nada with another of a series of regular missives of peace brought to you by my emissary Astrea Aurora. I bring this day tidings of planetary importance in the holding of love ... with many dispensations offered those who receive this missive.

In the coming days, the importance of the holding of the hearts open in love and in non-judgment becomes more and more relevant ... as much of the old falls away ... and as the new paradigm of love arises upon the planet earth. It is in the holding of the energy of love ... no matter what arises around you within the world ... that transcendence beyond pain and struggle is available to you. And so it is asked of you that you begin in this moment to hold love as the energy which is that most predominant in your thoughts, your emotions, in your being. To begin to allow love to be your predominant emotion. To allow the fear to dissipate, to release ... to depart. For it is in the holding open of your heart that you will stabilise your central pillar of light ... enabling you to stand firm and be unaffected to great degree by the events of a cataclysmic nature with which humanity may be faced. For the energies swirl alarmingly at times ... with coming to the forefront for examination those which are not of love but which are of corrupt practice ... whether of a political nature, of an environmental nature, of communication, of business practice, of the supply of the necessities of daily physical life ... those which you rely on in this modern world. And so, to greater and greater degree, that which is not of integrity, of purity, of love, of altruism and the good of all will rise to the surface for examination by all.

And it is asked of those lightworkers to whom this missive is directed ... and asked of those of you who hold the resonance of this to remind others ... if you will now, this moment, commence to hold the energy of love in every moment. And where once you may have acted in judgement of another ... in judgement of those in positions of high profile who you may have condemned in the past, in disagreement with their practices ... in judgement of those friends, loved ones, and acquaintances, workmates, those you meet in your daily life ... it is demanded of you now in your position of holding light upon this planet earth if you will desist from judgement ever or at all. It is demanded of you that you commence this moment to hold the energy of love in every circumstance of your life. And though yes, you hold ability to see to the truth of a being, a situation ... hold this capacity, there is no doubt ... you are asked to take a brave step beyond that of judgement and to enter into the higher realms of the possibility that is you at your highest and best ... and to open the compassionate heart and to see beyond the judgement ... to the humanity ... which besets that one whom formerly you may have judged as being wrong, as acting incorrectly.

You are asked to step beyond judgement ... on every occasion ... to step beyond that which was your former critical self ... into the higher dimensions ... to step bravely forward and upward from the limited third dimensional way of thinking ... to step higher, higher ... out of the limitation of criticism and judgement ... for you are not this, have not come to earth to judge and criticise. You have come to add your light and your love to this planet. And so it is asked of you if you will commence now to act in love in every circumstance. And where once you may have reacted in fear ... in harshness ... in anger ... in criticism ... in mistrust ... it is asked if you will commence now to become in the habit of reacting with love. It is asked of you if you will have compassion for humanity ... for it has endured much of distortion across the ages, and the challenge is clearly seen of the difficulties faced, with the denseness of this place holding many bound in fear and duality.

But as lightworkers, it is for you to step beyond the limitations ... and to bring in the new paradigm which is of love in every incident and circumstance of life.

As you now open your hearts, with the breath, the deep breath beloveds, I bring to you my rose of soft love and place this within your hearts ... breathing deeply as you receive this soft love ... which takes from you the burdens of the physical existence ... takes from you the harshness of your daily existence ... as you breathe to allow these to depart ... giving hope now, and the possibilities which are seen ... the possibility of reacting always with love ... for as you begin to act always in love ... your life will transform ... for it is in the fear which emanates from your being that experiences are returned to you by the universal laws of reflection ... and so, when it is love which is your primary emotion ... then within the universal flow of all life, it is only love which returns to you.

Breathing deeply as all fear is taken from you ... fear of the future and of the events which are foreshadowed ... allowing you to stand firmly in your column of light, unswayed by the buffeting which may swirl all around you.

And as your heart softens, and opens, the elixir of the Magdalene is placed deep within the core of your heart, healing the wounds of the heart, for it is seen that you have suffered greatly upon the human plane and that many of you have closed your hearts, in varying degrees, in an attempt to lessen the pain of physical existence.

And it is asked of you if you will bravely now open your hearts ... for it is the beauty of your hearts that is required of you in your walk upon the earth ... transmuting duality where're you walk, healing with your hearts of diamond like magnificence.

Accepting the elixir as the careworn sadnesses of the heart release, allowing the heart to open.

And you are asked to accept my assurances that always I remain with you ... all those who read this missive ... I give you my assurance that I stand by your side always in your daily walk upon this place ... holding you firmly in my embrace, loving you, guiding you, protecting you from fear and from pain ... as you open more and more fully to your divine nature ... opening your heart more and more, that all may receive the healing balm of your heart. This assurance I give you, that you are protected always, and that you may open your hearts fully in confidence and without fear.

This is that which is asked of you. And this assurance I give you in return, that always I remain by your side. You are cocooned in soft love beloveds. May you melt into this love and be this love. May from your shining face of love be received by many the healing balm of your love ... and may others see mirrored in your shining countenance that which they also hold ... and may love begin to circulate again upon this planet earth ... with love as a predominant emotion ... for it is love which will allow the prevention of much which is foreshadowed ... and so the importance is there that this occur.

Beloveds, I hold you in soft pink wings of love. As you breathe this love, may your hearts soften ... and open more widely.

I Am Lady Nada, and bid thee farewell for now.

Channeled with love by Astrea Aurora,
Keeper of the Angelic Symphonies, Angelic Keeper of the Mothers' Lodge, Divine Channel, Celestial Artist and Reader of the Akashic Records.

Astrea lives amongst the rice paddies in the spiritual centre of Bali, immersed in and inspired by the culture and spirituality of the Isle of the Gods. Her gift brought to earth for humanity is that of her ability to repattern the electro-magnetic field ... and her Creation Codes and Elixirs which restore and repattern the light body to Original Blueprint. That which she offers humanity:

- Ω Mystery School training courses as Seer, Rainbow Bridge Channel and Keeper of the Akashic Records.
- Ω Channeled readings of Life Purpose, Mission and Keepership, your purpose upon earth and your gift for humanity
- Ω Light Body Repair Kit ... sacred geometry codes for repatterning of the light body
- Ω Creation Elixirs with channeled activations ... for restoration and healing of the light body
- Ω Soul Signature, Galactic Presence and Highest Heart Dreaming Codes of sacred geometry
- Ω Soul portraits

Please feel free to forward on copies of these channeled messages, however, it is asked that contact details are included of Astrea Aurora, who retains copyright, with all rights reserved.

If you wish to receive Sister of the Rose regularly, or to contact Astrea for readings and enquiries,

email: tazja_angel@hotmail.com

Telephone: (Bali +62) 081 338 293 983